A Message from the President

It is hard to believe this is my third opportunity to write an article for the South Dakota Community Foundation’s annual report. Over the past 36 months, South Dakota Community Foundation staff members have traveled to every county in the state, working with individuals, communities, organizations, and businesses on leaving a lasting legacy. We have met with families who have sold their family farms and ranches, and are establishing an endowment to keep their family name alive in the area. There have been meetings with community leaders who are committed to improving the quality of life for future generations in communities with populations from 200 to 80,000. Finally, we have walked and talked with individuals who are the recipients of the wide array of services offered by our many grant partners. In each and every case, the staff of the South Dakota Community Foundation walks away with a renewed sense of this organization’s real purpose.

In 2005, the South Dakota Community Foundation continued its growth trend. The permanent endowment grew from $41 million to over $47 million, and forty-nine new funds brought the total number of funds under management to over 310. While these figures show steady and consistent increases, the real story lies in what is being done with the earnings from these funds. The South Dakota Community Foundation’s Grantmaking Committee provided grant funds to forty-eight charitable and nonprofit organizations across the state. These grants helped Junior Achievement of South Dakota continue to grow statewide, assisted with economic development efforts in Huron, supported the performing arts at Custer High School, provided matching funds for a scholarship program at Oglala Lakota College in Kyle, funded individual development accounts in Eagle Butte, and provided capital for an affordable housing consortium administered in Yankton. With each of these forty-eight grants, there are incredible, personal stories of individuals who are impacted by the organizations managing these programs. The look of appreciation in the eyes of children served by an after-school program or the sincere thanks from a small-town development corporation’s board of directors on receiving a community development grant is indescribable. Such appreciation and thanks is multiplied many times over on an annual basis through our donor advised funds. That is what the South Dakota Community Foundation is all about, and I am proud to be a small part of the excitement.

Tona Rozum, a nine-year member of the South Dakota Community Foundation’s board of directors, and the capable chair of our Investment Committee, served her last term on the board in 2005, and her perspective will be missed. She was a strong leader and was instrumental in leading the Foundation to where it is today. Another director, Irving Hinderaker of Watertown, proved he is a strong and capable man as he met a health crisis head-on and proved why he is one of the most respected individuals in South Dakota. With unmatched class and courage, Irv told me from a hospital bed that he would certainly be participating in the Foundation’s upcoming board meeting in Watertown last fall. While I wanted to believe him, it was difficult to imagine. Much to my joy, Irv and his wife, Eula were there to greet our board and guests as we gathered in late October. People like Irv make me truly appreciate the opportunities I have been given by this organization. His recovery was an inspiration, and was the most important event of 2005 for the South Dakota Community Foundation.
The History

The South Dakota Community Foundation was part of a vision the late Governor George S. Mickelson had for the State of South Dakota. The SDCF was born as a public, nonprofit corporation on November 11, 1987 as part of a vision for our state’s second century. The McKnight Foundation and the 3M Corporation issued challenge grants to the state of South Dakota in an effort to memorialize the life of South Dakota native William L. McKnight. McKnight was a former CEO of the 3M Corporation and the founder of the McKnight Foundation. The state of South Dakota committed $2 million to the project, and the SDCF leadership was required to raise another $3 million in twelve months to obligate the entire challenge grant. The original $10 million has now grown to a $48 million endowment serving nonprofits and charities in South Dakota. Through the continued generosity of South Dakotans and solid investment returns, the people and communities of South Dakota will benefit for generations to come.

The Mission

The mission of the South Dakota Community Foundation is to promote philanthropy, receive and administer charitable gifts and invest in a wide range of programs promoting the social and economic well being of the people of South Dakota.

Kinds of Funds

The South Dakota Community Foundation accepts and administers five kinds of funds, all of which are held in permanent endowment and are designed to allow the donor to meet their charitable goals.

Community Savings Accounts benefit a specific community or region of South Dakota. The earnings are awarded at the recommendation of a local board of directors.

Designated Funds benefit specific charitable institutions named by donors in establishing their funds.

Donor Advised Funds are funds whose donors reserve the privilege to recommend agencies to be considered for grants.

Scholarship Funds benefit South Dakota high school graduates pursuing higher education opportunities.

Unrestricted Funds are used at the discretion of the Foundation Board of Directors to meet deserving charitable needs and opportunities throughout South Dakota.

In May, 2004, the historic State Theatre, home of Mitchell's Area Community Theatre (ACT), was destroyed by fire. The City of Mitchell decided a former balloon museum on Main Street to the ACT, which has been renovated. This grant will help cover some of those costs.

Area Community Theatre, Mitchell, SD - $7,500

In May, 2004, the historic State Theatre, home of Mitchell's Area Community Theatre (ACT), was destroyed by fire. The City of Mitchell decided a former balloon museum on Main Street to the ACT, which has been renovated. This grant will help cover some of those costs.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Black Hills, Rapid City, SD - $5,000

The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Black Hills is to match up children with adults for mentoring and companionship. This year, the organization has developed a new program to serve the 97 children currently waiting to be matched. In partnership with the SD School of Mines and Technology, Big Brothers Big Sisters is offering Campus Kids, a program designed to offer activities and regular contact between volunteers and children on the waiting list until permanent matches can be made.

Black Hills Area Council, Inc. Boy Scouts of America, Rapid City, SD - $5,000

Scoutreach is a program that serves underprivileged youth across western South Dakota by providing access and financial assistance to scouting services. This grant will assist with funding for camping scholarships and outreach programs in Shannon County. Scoutreach in Shannon County provides after-school activities several times a week that focus on outdoor skills, building character, fitness and citizenship.

Boys and Girls Clubs of the Glacial Lakes, Sisseton, SD - $5,000

This grant will assist with the purchase and conversion of a building to meet the needs of the Boys and Girls Club following a May, 2005 fire. The Boys and Girls Club serves 1,600 members from Sisseton, Waubay, Peeer, Enemy Swim and Agency Village. Children are taught in 5 core areas, including Character and Leadership Development and Career, Health and Life Skills.

Broom Tree Retreat and Conference Center, Irene, SD - $10,000

This facility is an ecumenical retreat and conference center located near Irene, SD. It is a partnership between various Christian denominations including the Catholic Diocese of Eastern South Dakota and the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America. The campus will include lodging and meeting facilities, recreational opportunities, and youth and family camp offerings. This conference center will offer an array of services to groups from across the region, and is supported by South Dakota universities and private colleges, numerous church groups, and the Avera Healthcare System.

City of Freeman, Freeman, SD - $10,000

This is an economic development initiative that will provide the development of a revolving loan fund in Freeman, SD. This community serves a regional trade area with retail, medical, professional and educational services and wants to make this community of 1,300 more viable through job creation, business expansion and creation, and utilizing the revolving loan fund to leverage private and public funds for business and industrial development projects. This grant is contingent upon the applicant raising $100,000.

Dakota Central Resource Conservation and Development Applicant Area, Eureka, SD - $4,000

The Eureka Lake Recreation Enhancement project is an effort to improve the reliability of the water source feeding Eureka Lake, along with enhancing recreational opportunities at the City of Eureka's signature body of water. This improvement project will also provide handicapped accessible picnic shelters and a handicapped accessible fishing dock. This grant is contingent on the community raising $35,000.

First Western Custer Area Foundation, Custer, SD - $15,000

Modeled after the effort undertaken in Wall, SD in 2004, the Custer Area Community Foundation has stepped up to play a key role in the construction of the new high school and community center in their community. Part of this project is a performing arts auditorium and a sound system for the auditorium. The grant award is contingent on the local organization raising $185,000.
SDCF Grants Awarded

Four Bands Community Fund, Eagle Butte, SD - $20,000
Four Bands has built a reputation as a national leader in Indian Country entrepreneurship services. Expanding on that success, Four Bands is launching their new Individual Development Account (IDA) program, which encourages participants to build long-term assets for specific purposes. The IDA program includes classes that are mandatory on general financial literacy, followed by classes on individual savings goals. Participants in the program will make monthly savings deposits, and the funds are matched 3 to 1 by the IDA sponsors. Participants can only use the funds for things such as homeownership, business development, post-secondary education. The IDA program has been tremendously successful in low income areas in the United States, including a strong program on the Pine Ridge Reservation through the Lakota Fund. This program instills the value of saving in a culture that has had little exposure to the positives of building net worth. This grant is contingent on raising $200,000 from other sources.

Four Bands Community Fund, Eagle Butte, SD - $20,000
This is an economic development initiative directed by the Greater Huron Development Corporation to raise $10 million to recapitalize the Community Development Fund. Their goal is to raise the money over the next 10 years. Greater Huron Development Corporation has worked with local individuals and businesses to generate this capital.

Harding County Hospital Association, Buffalo, SD - $2,650
Funds from this grant will assist with improvements to create handicapped accessibility and assistance for individuals with disabilities at the Buffalo Community Health Center. Harding County has a population of approximately 1,300 of which 13 percent are disabled. The clinic serves the entire county and the surrounding rural area. This grant is contingent on the local association raising the other $2,650.

Huron Community Foundation, Huron, SD - $3,000
This grant will help to provide funds to students who have been awaiting funds from Si Tanka University in Huron, but will not receive them. The University has closed. These funds will be distributed based on a formula developed by Huron residents assisting the student population.

Huron Public Library, Huron, SD - $4,000
In 2004, the South Dakota Newspaper Association began digitizing many of the state’s current newspapers. Access to this database is available through a subscription, and much of the state’s most valuable printed information will be permanently archived. The South Dakota Library Association, led by the librarian in Huron, has started the process to digitize newspapers prior to 2004. This will ensure access to valuable historical information and documents through the Internet. The entire project has a price tag of $500,000. This grant will help cover the costs of developing a test site to work on the establishment of the overall system.

Isabel Betterment Society, Isabel, SD - $5,000
This grant will assist with the placement of a Governor’s Daycare facility in the community of Isabel. It will help fill the needs of the community in regards to quality, affordable childcare. The school district is participating in this project due to the large number of teachers with children needing childcare.

Junior Achievement of South Dakota, Sioux Falls, SD - $25,000
This grant award supports the statewide expansion and implementation of Junior Achievement in South Dakota.

Java Depot, Java, SD - $2,500
The Java Depot was built in 1901 by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway. The depot remains in its original location in the community. The building still has a passenger waiting room, office space, a warehouse and a small apartment. It is currently being used as a grain warehouse for the local elevator. The community effort to restore the facility will be undertaken by volunteers and through in-kind labor and materials. Funds from the SDCF will assist with a historically restored building that can be used for receptions, community events and a destination for travelers.

Kimball Chamber of Commerce, Kimball, SD - $5,000
Matching funds from this grant will assist the Kimball Chamber of Commerce with stage lighting for the new school facility in Kimball. The performance stage in Kimball provides programming not only for the student population, but for the community as a whole. The community of Kimball added the performance stage to the original design for the new school building, and raised the money locally. The grant is contingent on them raising $23,000.

Midland Youth Development, Midland, SD - $7,500
The Midland Youth Development project is a partnership between the Turner Foundation, the Midland Youth Development organization, the Midland Senior Citizens Center, and the South Dakota Community Foundation. Through a partnership with the local senior citizens center, this grant will help expand the current senior center to house facilities for youth that will be open later hours in the evening and on weekends. The center will provide a place to socialize, study and interact with other youth in the community. The senior citizens center will benefit from refitted restroom facilities and room for expanded activities as needed. This model will be used as an example to other Turner communities across the country to show the need for intergenerational cooperation.

Northern Hills Crisis Outreach, Lead, SD - $4,000
This project is for funding to accommodate facility improvements at the domestic abuse shelter in Lead. This shelter serves the communities of Lead, Deadwood and Belle Fourche. This grant will help with improvements in the shelter office, where counseling takes place, the laundry, indoor and outdoor play areas, and library resources.

Oglala Lakota College, Kyle, SD - $20,000
Matching dollars for a permanently endowed scholarship program to be housed at the South Dakota Community Foundation. This is an educational institution that serves a substantially underprivileged population. Over 43% of OLC students come from families below the poverty level, and 92% of all OLC students are first generation college enrollees. This grant is contingent on OLC raising $80,000 for this purpose and the funds being permanently endowed at the South Dakota Community Foundation.
Pierre Area Reading Council, Pierre, SD - $1,000
This local nonprofit organization has developed a book club within the walls of the Women’s Prison in Pierre. There is currently a waiting list to join the program. This specific grant will help with the purchase of the books being read by the inmates, allowing them to keep the books while they are incarcerated and after they are released. In addition, this organization assists inmates through a program called Mom’s Making Memories, which helps in mate mothers record books on tape and send the tapes to their children at home.

Planning & Development District III, Yankton, SD - $15,000
A consortium of organizations is working to develop a model program for affordable housing in rural communities. The partnership is organized by USDA Rural Development, the Rural Learning Center in Howard, the South Dakota Housing Development Authority, the Northeast South Dakota Economic Development Corporation, Planning District III of Yankton, the South Dakota Community Foundation, Fannie Mae, and the South Dakota Rural Development Council. Funds from the SDCF will be used to leverage a grant from HUD. The end result will be a playbook for rural housing development, a set of best practice models, and a network of assistance resources. Many rural communities have identified assistance in the development of affordable housing as their number one challenge to long-term sustainability. Once the funding is secured, a housing implementation program will be launched, involving several pilot communities in rural South Dakota.

Platte Development Corporation, Platte, SD - $10,000
This grant will assist with the success of this organization’s innovative job shadow/partnership program. The program partners the Platte Development Corporation, high school students, and area businesses/employers. Area businesses in need of trained labor offer job shadowing opportunities for high school students. If an employment opportunity is of interest to the student, the business would pay 1/3 of the student’s tuition to a post-secondary school, the Platte Development Corporation would pay 1/3 of the tuition, and the student would be responsible for the other one-third. Upon graduation from school, the student would be required to work at the business for four years. It is an incentive program developed by a small community to keep businesses open and young people returning to Platte.

Prairie Freedom Center, Sioux Falls, SD - $2,500
The Prairie Freedom Center serves individuals with disabilities with an array of services in a 24-county area in southeastern South Dakota. Their mission is to empower individuals with significant disabilities who choose to live independently. They are currently in the process of raising $250,000 for their Home Modification and Adaptive Devices Program. This program provides adaptive devices for personal tasks and home modifications that make independent living a reality. The $250,000 will provide 96 individuals with hand controls for vehicles, eating and dressing aids, wheelchair ramps, and wheel-in showers. This grant will assist the Center in reaching its goal.

Sioux Valley Alumni & Friends Foundations, Inc., Volga, SD - $8,000
This grant will help fund equipment in the new community/athletic center that has been constructed in Volga for Sioux Valley High School. It is contingent on them raising $250,000 for this project.

South Dakota Heritage Fund, Pierre, SD - $6,000
The South Dakota Heritage Fund has embarked on raising over $45 million to complete the final gallery at the South Dakota Cultural Heritage Center in Pierre. This grant will assist in the construction of a donor recognition wall within the new gallery. The wall would recognize all contributors who have given $100 or more to the capital campaign. The grant is contingent upon them raising $15,000 for this project.

South Dakota Rural Development Council, Inc, Sioux Falls, SD - $5,000
In 2004 the Rural Development Council conducted community assessments in 10 South Dakota communities. These assessments result in a full report that the community uses in its development plan, chamber of commerce initiatives, and even city, county and school initiatives. This grant will assist with the funding of 10 more South Dakota communities. It will also assist with a symposium and a resource database for the reports from these assessments.

South Dakota Voices for Children, Sioux Falls, SD - $5,000
South Dakota Voices for Children has been operating in South Dakota for over 12 years, and brings together policymakers, business leaders, parents, youth and a broad range of professionals to meet the needs of children ranging from food, shelter and clothing to education, health care and safety. This grant will assist this organization is conducting an outreach campaign in South Dakota’s eight largest communities to inform community and elected leaders about policy issues of importance to children. South Dakota Voices for Children will also identify opportunities to collaborate on policy issues of mutual concern.

Southeastern Behavioral HealthCare, Sioux Falls, SD - $12,500
Southeastern Behavioral Healthcare has established an endowment fund at the South Dakota Community Foundation for the purpose of building a stronger development program. The earnings from the endowment will be used to improve relationships with donors, hosting special events, and a direct mail program for prospective donors. In addition, the earnings from the fund will be used to fund new programs or positions as needs arise. This grant is contingent upon Southeastern Behavioral raising $100,000.

Teach for America, Pierre, SD - $7,500
Teach for America is a program that brings graduates from universities across the United States to rural, reservation schools in South Dakota to teach. This program has provided teachers who are currently serving in Todd County, Crazy Horse (Wanblee) and Little Wound (Kyle) School Districts. In many cases, these teachers come from major universities located in metropolitan areas. Currently, teachers from Boston, Philadelphia and Los Angeles are serving the students of South Dakota’s reservations. This program will be expanded during the upcoming school year to include at least one new school district. This grant will assist with this expansion.

The Center for Western Studies, Sioux Falls, SD - $3,700
The Center for Western Studies has worked to develop a new History of South Dakota book that was rolled out for publication in 2005. The South Dakota Community Foundation helped support the research portion of this project in early 2004. This grant will assist with funding to provide a copy of this new book to every school library and public library in South Dakota.

The City of Emery, Emery, SD - $5,000
Matching funds to develop an industrial park and build a spec building that they already have a probable tenant willing to occupy. This grant is contingent on the City of Emery raising $100,000.

Tom & Danielle Aman Foundation, Aberdeen, SD - $10,000
This project includes the purchase of the former Milwaukee Road Depot in downtown Aberdeen, renovating the 1911 structure into a cultural and community center, nonprofit professional offices, and retail space for Native American and South Dakota Made products. The new facility will also house the Aberdeen Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and offer one-stop assistance to visitors. The depot was once the hub of the “Hub City”, and this private foundation is working to make it a prominent downtown location once again.

Town n' Country Library, Murdo, SD - $1,500
The Murdo Town and Country Library, started in 1977, has built up their collection of books over the years, and focus on reading to 3rd and 4th grade students in the community on a weekly basis. Recently, they purchased a building on Main Street and will turn a vacant storefront into a community library location. This grant will assist in renovation and equipment purchases for the new facility.

Union County Health Foundation, Inc., Elk Point, SD - $2,250
Funds from this grant will provide for one of the two pieces of equipment needed to purchase Automatic External Defibrillators (AEDs) at two clinics in South Dakota, Alcester and Elk Point.

Wakanyeja Pawicyapi Inc. (The Children First), Porcupine, SD - $7,000
Wakanyeja Pawicyapi Inc. (WPI) serves Lakota children ages 6-18 who have experienced, or are experiencing serious emotional disturbance. They provide individual, group, and family counseling services for Lakota children from across the reservation. The organization was given a multi-million dollar grant to build a new 8,000 square foot facility in Porcupine, SD. It will provide for one-on-one sessions, group therapy, and interactive sessions. The new facility will open in early September, and also provides a “safe house” for kids who have been emotionally and/or sexually abused. This grant will help with the success of this program.

Wakanyeja Tiospaye O'Tipi-Children’s Village, Inc., Pine Ridge, SD - $5,000
Children’s Village is organized as a nonprofit, and receives funding from the tribe, South Dakota Department of Social Services, and donors from across the country. Children are placed at Children’s Village on a temporary basis, but tragically, many end up there for over 10 years. This grant will assist with educational, familial, and support services to the children placed at the center.

West River Foundation, Sturgis, SD - $6,000
The West River Foundation serves as the fiscal agent for the South Dakota Construction Connections program, which is a pilot program developed to address the shortage of qualified workers in the construction trades industry in South Dakota. The project provides young people an opportunity to explore careers in residential and commercial construction. The participants spend three weeks in the summer in this program, and there are four sites selected across the state to host the project. This grant is contingent on them raising $14,000 for 2005.

Wounded Knee District Economic Development/Business Associations, Manderson, SD - $2,500
One of the districts on the Pine Ridge Reservation has taken the initiative to develop a grassroots economic and business plan on their part of the reservation. Working through the Badlands Resource Conservation and Development District out of Martin, this local group has worked to develop a plan on the local level, including housing needs, tourism potential, alternative energy sources, and land development. The fiscal agent on this grant would be the Badlands RC&D. This group has a goal to raise $250,000 over the next 3-5 years. This grant will assist in their fundraising effort.

Yankton County Parents As Teachers, Inc., Yankton, SD - $5,000
This is the only program serving 0-3 year olds in the Yankton area. Currently there are 37 families utilizing the services of an educator who visits the home and provides parents with age-appropriate activities for young children. These families do not have to meet income or other federal guidelines to participate in the program, and there are no fees charged to the family for participation. This program precedes the Head Start Program, which begins at age 3. Screening is provided as an early means of detecting learning delays or disabilities.

Yelduz Roadrunners, Aberdeen, SD - $5,000
The Yelduz Shrine in Aberdeen provides transportation services to children and their families receiving medical services in Minneapolis, Chicago and Cincinnati. The Roadrunners use volunteers and vans to provide rides from across the northern half of South Dakota to Minneapolis. In many cases, these trips are scheduled on a monthly basis. In addition to the free transportation, the Roadrunners also provide lodging for the patient and one family member. This grant will help build an endowment to provide financial assistance.
